Result of This Latest Trick. Result of This Latest Trick.

The latest "issue" of the campaign is Tammany's kidnapping, or attempted abduction, at least, of the title, "civic alliance," and the emblems thereof, constituting the new party designation under which the independents had rallied to the support of Hearst. As a result of this move Tammany's ticket may appear under the emblems of three different parties on the official ballot—the straight democratic, the old independence league, recently captured at the primaries, and lastly the new civic alliance. While Hearst may yet qualimaries, and lastly the new civic al-liance. While Hearst may yet quali-fy under an altogether new party name, the stratagem, if successful, will give Tammany an advantage of 2 to 1 in the matter of publicity on the ballot. But, doubtless, it will cause some confusion to voters in Tammany's interests besides causing additional trouble to the Hearst forces. to Decide. For this, the latest plan to disconcert the Hearst followers, Charles F. Murphy, the Tammany leader, has to thank State Senator P. H. McCarren, the democratic leader of Brooklyn. It was while the promoters of Hearst's was while the promoters of Hearst's candidacy were getting signatures with which to put their ticket into the field under the name of "civic alliance," that the astute Brooklyn senator, according to reports, had his lieutenants at work on a similar document, except that Tammany candidates were substituted for the Hearst closer.

Just before three o'clock yesterday atternoon three of McCarren's men rushed into the office of President Dooling of the board of elections in New York and unfolded a petition by "independent voters," who had adopted the name of "civic alliance" but who named the Tammany candidates. Nineteen minutes later James A. a Hearst Heutenant, appeared with the bona fide petition, name and mblem of the civic alliance. Since neither petition had more than fifty signatures they were not complete, for the law requires two thou-sand names. In case both the Mc-Carrenites and Hearst's followers com-
